

CROSSWORD: Awareness of Apprenticeship

EclipseCrossword.com

Across

2. A Certificate of _____ is a document issued to a person who has demonstrated competence in a specific trade and has met all of the requirements.
4. A person who agrees to work faithfully for an employer, to learn the skills of the occupation, and to undertake technical training when required.
6. A document signed by three different parties - the apprentice, the employer and the province.
8. _____ training is provided in partnership with the workplace learning experience.
9. A trade that requires a person employed in the trade to have either a current Certificate of Qualification, be a registered Apprentice, be a registered improver in that trade, or have a current Certificate of Qualification from another jurisdiction bearing the Interprovincial Red Seal.

Down

1. A trade regulated by the Nova Scotia Apprenticeship and Trades Qualifications Act and General Regulations.
3. An agreement between an apprentice and an employer in which the apprentice agrees to work for the employer in exchange for extensive supervised, on-the-job experience and technical training.
5. A government issued identification _____ provides evidence that the person has demonstrated competence in a specific trade and has met all of the requirements for certification.
7. The _____ Seal Program provides workers with greater mobility across Canada through successful completion of the Interprovincial Standards Examination.